

Be of Good Cheer

In Matthew 9, why could the sick of the palsy be of good cheer?

Why could the woman with the issue of blood be of good comfort?

In Matthew 14, why could the disciples in the boat on the stormy sea be of good cheer?

In Mark 10, why could blind Bartimaeus be of good comfort?

In John 16, why could Jesus' disciples be of good cheer in a wicked world that hated them?

Memory Verse

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

(John 16:33)
