

Divine Delights

And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. (Psalms 119:47)

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. (John 1:14)

For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. (John 1:17)

John had the great privilege of witnessing Jesus' life in the flesh. He observed that Jesus was full of grace and truth. John saw Jesus heal, teach and show compassion on multitudes of people. Jesus did not have to do this. Even today, we believers experience God's wonderful grace continually. We don't deserve any of His wonderful gifts to us (the greatest being salvation), but He gives them to us anyway. If God can show so much grace to us, then the least we can do is pass that on and be giving to others.

John realised too that Jesus was full of truth. Time and time again, God's word proves itself to be true. When we read books, we can never be sure that what the author is saying is totally true. We compare with other authors, look at the evidence, etc. to come up with our conclusion. Isn't it so wonderful to be able to read God's word and be assured that everything in it is true. We don't need to prove it. We just need to study and obey it.

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. (2 Corinthians 8:9)

Dear Ladies,

So many times, the Lord delights me with blessings, insights and helps from His Word. As it is always a blessing to hear how others have been blessed by God's Word, I have decided to share these things regularly with the ladies of our church. May you be encouraged and delight in Him also.

Love Heather.
