

Divine Delights

And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. (Psalms 119:47)

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance. (Psalms 42:5)

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God. (Psalms 42:11)

The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. (Psalms 34:15-16)

Isn't it interesting that you can often tell a Christian by their face. There is a peace there that only the Lord can give. I sometimes think of Lydia Oliver and the joy she showed on her face because of her love for the Lord. It was not that long ago that I noticed that in Psalm 42, the psalmist is praising God for the help of his countenance (face) and then for the health that he gives to the psalmist's countenance (face). I am glad that I too have the help of God's countenance. His eyes are watching over me and his ears are always ready to hear my prayers.

The LORD bless thee, and keep thee: The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. (Numbers 6:24-26)

Dear Ladies,

So many times, the Lord delights me with blessings, insights and helps from His Word. As it is always a blessing to hear how others have been blessed by God's Word, I have decided to share these things regularly with the ladies of our church. May you be encouraged and delight in Him also.

Love Heather.
