

Divine Delights

And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. (Psalms 119:47)

It is so amazing that God's Word which was written so long ago is so relevant and necessary for today. This is because the author is our all knowing God and His Word is living and powerful. What a blessing that we have His Word readily available to us! Since this book is the best book to read, we should have no reason to neglect it.

Through the last few months, I have had a couple of potentially life threatening experiences. Last December, a 3cm lump was found in my breast (it is still there). In January, an ultrasound showed that Ruthanna was not growing well (a later ultrasound showed this to be incorrect). In February, I gave birth to our beautiful baby girl. For the next month, I had many blood clots appearing in my legs. These experiences are nothing compared to what many people go through, but they can still be unsettling if I choose to worry about them.

There is always something in God's Word for every situation that we find ourselves in. The Lord brought to my mind a verse that kept coming back to me whenever I would dwell on my circumstances. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. (Isaiah 26:3) I was reminded again and again to keep my mind on the Lord and trust Him for He knows what is best. I particularly remember going over and over this verse during labour. It is true that when I keep my trust in the Lord, I do have perfect peace. The unknown is not scary when I remember that the Lord knows and has a plan that works out for good.

Jesus, Jesus, how I trust Him!
How I've proved Him o'er and o'er!
Jesus, Jesus, precious Jesus!
O for grace to trust Him more!

Dear Ladies,
May you be encouraged and delight in the Lord also.
Love Heather.
