

Divine Delights

And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. (Psalms 119:47)

In whom (Christ) are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words. For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. (Colossians 2:3-8)

Our world today is one in which people have “knowledge” at their fingertips. I enjoy and have spent time researching many different topics—my favourite being home remedies and nutrition. As I was reading through Colossians, these verses were a timely reminder to me that God is the source of all wisdom and I need to seek Him first and not be dependant on all the worldly wisdom that is out there. The Lord will give me wisdom if I ask for it. The Lord may use to the internet or other people, etc. to direct me to answers, but I need to remember that He knows all things and I need to go to Him first. I need to be in God’s Word regularly which overflows with His wisdom.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. (Colossians 3:16)

Dear Ladies,
May you be encouraged and delight in the Lord also.
Love Heather.
