

Divine Delights

And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. (Psalms 119:47)

Lately, as I have been reading from Psalm 84, 2 Corinthians 1 and even Isaiah chapters 36 & 37, the theme seems to be to trust the Lord. I think the Lord is trying to tell me something as I begin to face the dreaded morning sickness. Yes, that's right, I am pregnant again! The children have been praying that I will have another baby. The Lord is good!

I thought I would share with you what Paul wrote in 2 Corinthians 1:3-11 about his sufferings for Christ—a little different than morning sickness, but we have the same great God that we can trust during times of suffering.

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

I am so glad that I have a merciful God who knows what He is doing in my life.

Dear Ladies,
May you be encouraged and delight in the Lord also.
Love Heather.
