

Divine Delights

And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. (Psalms 119:47)

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.
(1 Timothy 6:17-19)

Upon reading these verses recently, I was reminded of the fact that I (like most people in Australia) am very rich. My basic needs are easily met and I am also able to purchase many of my wants. This is actually a spiritually dangerous situation to be in. It is easy for the rich to forget God and rely on 'things' for fulfilment in life. These verses show me that it is not wrong to be rich, but it is wrong to trust in my riches. It is really the Lord that has given me all that I have and I need to depend on Him and trust Him for everything. By the way, the spiritual riches that He gives bring true fulfilment and satisfaction.

With riches comes the responsibility to do good and to be ready and willing to share with others.

...remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.
(Acts 20:35b)

Dear Ladies,

So many times, the Lord delights me with blessings, insights and helps from His Word. As it is always a blessing to hear how others have been blessed by God's Word, I have decided to share these things regularly with the ladies of our church. May you be encouraged and delight in Him also.

Love Heather.
